++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A dry evening with heavy rain and strong winds overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry for most this evening with cloud building from the west, bringing heavy rain and blustery winds overnight, that will travel quickly across the country. Feeling noticeably cooler and fresher following this rain passing. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Monday:
Any remaining rain clearing quickly eastwards, leading to a dry start for most, with plenty of sunny spells throughout the day with the odd, occasionally heavy scattered shower. Feeling cooler. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Unsettled weather ahead. Sunshine and prolonged showers on Tuesday and some potentially strong winds along coastal areas. Turning drier and brighter on Wednesday with further showers on Thursday. Cooler throughout.
